

TRANSITIONAL WORDS

INSTRUCTIONS: Select the Transitional Word on the sentences. There is ONLY one per sentence.

1.-I was reading while my sister was playing.

2.- There are bannanas, apples and also oranges.

3.-He was very happy, of course he was, it was his birthday.

4.-She likes candies especially lollipops.

5.-It was so dark as if it was midnight.

6.-I did well on my exam, in fact I got a 100.

7.- The soup and the tea, both are very hot.

8.-It is Sunday; however, you have homework to do.

9.-You have quiz tomorrow so you need to study.

10.-She ate a cake and then she had an ice cream.

11.-That dog is kind; on the contrary that cat is rude.

12.-My brother is sad because he lost his toy.

13.- I like animals such as bunnies, puppies and kittens.

14.- It was a long and interesting book; in conclusion, it was good.