

I. Circle the pronoun in () that refers to the underlined antecedent.

1. Alexis and I clapped, and the chimp mimicked (we, us).
2. Derek did not think the monkey liked (him, I).
3. Shawna watched the chimps play while (her, she) took notes.
4. Juni and Kiko wanted the toy, so we gave it to (him, them).
5. (Us, We) chimp enthusiasts look to Jane Goodall for inspiration.

II. Write the pronoun that completes each sentence. (Antecedent)

They	it	we	she	us
------	----	----	-----	----

6. Ella thought _____ could teach the monkey a trick.
7. We tried to open the cage but found _____ was locked.
8. The scientist came to our class because _____ students wrote him a letter.
9. When Audrey and I walked toward the chimp, he screeched at _____.
10. Animal welfare groups are important because _____ help keep animals safe.

III. Select the possessive pronoun in each sentence.

11. My diary is in a box on the shelf in the closet.
12. The green jacket on the chairs is hers.
13. Our homework must be finished before dinner.
14. Jack and Steve arrived ten minutes before their baseball game began.
15. Are the uniforms ours or the school's?

IV. Replace the underlined word or words with a possessive pronoun. Write the possessive pronoun.

16. Every afternoon Jeanne and Sally walk Jeanne and Sally's dog. _____
17. Andy rode Andy's new bike to the park after school. _____
18. Claudia and I should schedule Claudia's and my swimming lessons with the instructor.

19. Denise likes history and English, so they are Denise's best subjects. _____
20. Shelley told us that the science project on the table was Shelley's. _____

V. Select the correct indefinite pronoun in () that completes each sentence correctly.

21. (Someone, Few) is taking us to the launch pad.
22. (Many, No one) arrive for Cadet Training.
23. (Both, Anyone) are trained to pilot a starship.
24. (Several, No one) knows about navigating through a meteor shower.
25. (Few, Each) have seen the asteroid belt.

VI. Complete the next chart with the correct reflexive pronoun.

(myself, ourselves, herself, themselves, itself)

Singular reflexive pronoun	Plural reflexive pronoun
26.	29.
himself	yourselves
27.	30.
28.
yourself	