	The next night, two men stop the raft, looking for runaway slaves.
	They decided to travel at night and hide during the day.
	Huck and Jim start floating down the Mississippi towards Cairo.
	Huck and Jim jump off the raft just before a steamboat hits it.
	From Cairo, Jim plans to go up to the Ohio River to the Free States.
	Huck is in his canoe and can't find Jim in the fog.

	Huck and Jim realize they have gone past Cairo without seeing it in the fog.
	Huck says his family is very sick, and the men leave quickly.

3. Answer the question

Why does Huck lie and say that his awfully sick family is on the raft with him?

Varför ljugar Huckleberry Finn och säger att hans väldigt sjuka familj är med på flotten?
