Listen to an interview about the sculptor Jim Haynes who has become a dinner host. For each question choose the correct answer.

1. Haynes finds personal fulfilment in being
   A. active in the world of culture
   B. a founder of magazines
   C. a founder of theatres
   D. a dinner host
2. Around fifty people can come to his house if
   A. the garden hasn't been flooded
   B. they have met him before
   C. the weather is fine
   D. they have contacted him early enough
3. The meals are cooked by
   A. a young philosopher from Lisbon
   B. one of the people who called
   C. one of Hayne's friends
   D. a trainee chef from London
4. Haynes' dinners are good for meeting new people because
   A. he mixes with his guests
   B. his guests sit where they want
   C. his guests don't sit down to eat
   D. he carefully selects his guests
5. Haynes memorizes details about his guests in order to
   A. write a guest list
   B. address them personally
   C. make them known to each other
   D. train his memory skills

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. In his travel books Haynes wrote about
    A. hospitable local people
    B. the role of friendship
    C. spectacular sights
    D. good shopping facilities
7. At one of Haynes' dinners not long ago
    A. a Bosnian family brought along their Estonian friends
    B. two children formed a close bond
    C. the parents of two children became close friends
    D. one couple had their children with them
8. Haynes is convinced that it is very important to
    A. meet people from other professions
    B. speak at least a little English
    C. show regard for other people
    D. comprehend with other people
9. Above all, Haynes believes that
    A. all lives are interrelated
    B. life should be enjoyed
    C. everybody needs a soul mate
    D. everybody should travel the world

LIVEWORKSHEETS