TAKE ME TO CHURCH by Hozier

"Take Me to Church" is a song by Irish musician Hozier for his debut extended play (EP) Take Me to Church (2014), as well as his self-titled debut album (2014). A mid-tempo soul song, its lyrics detail Hozier's frustration with the Catholic Church and its stance on homosexuality. The song's music video has contributed to its widespread popularity. The clip, directed by Brendan Canty and Conal Thomson of the small production company Feel Good Lost, follows the relationship between two men and the subsequent violent homophobic backlash. Upon its YouTube release in September 2013, it quickly began to go viral, leading to Hozier's license with Columbia Records US and Island Records UK.

My lover's got _____
She's the giggle at a _____
Knows everybody's _____
I should've worshipped her sooner

If the heavens ever did _____
She's the last _____ mouthpiece
Every Sunday's getting more bleak
A fresh poison each _____
"We were born sick," you heard them say it

My _____ offers no absolutes
She tells me, "Worship in the _____."
The only _____ I'll be sent to
Is when I'm _____ with you

I was born sick, but I love it
Command me to be _____
Aaay. Amen. Amen. Amen.

[Chorus] (x2)
Take me to church
I'll _____ like a dog at the shrine of your lies
I'll tell you my _____ and you can sharpen your knife
Offer me that deathless _____
Good God, let me give you my _____

If I'm a _____ of the good times
My lover's the _____
To keep the Goddess on my _____
She demands a _____

Drain the whole sea
Get something _____
Something meaty for the main course
That's a fine-looking high horse
What you got in the stable?
We've a lot of starving _____

That looks _____
That looks plenty
This is _____ work

[Chorus] (x2)

No Masters or Kings
When the _____ begins
There is no sweeter _____ than our gentle sin

In the _____ and soil of that sad earthly scene
Only then I am _____
Only then I am _____
Ooh oh. Amen. Amen. Amen.

[Chorus] (x2)
