Blue Lagoon-Iceland - a country in the North Atlantic near the Arctic Circle: probably isn't the first place you think of for a perfect beach holiday. But every year, thousands of people take off their clothes and swim at the Blue Lagoon, a beach near the Ardic Circle and just 45 km from the capital city, Reykjavik. The air temperature can be as low as minus10 degrees: but the water comes from underground and is naturally hot - the usual water temperature is between 35 and 40 degrees. It's like taking a hot bath in the open air!!

London Bridge - USA!!

The original London Bridge actually isn't in London at all .. and it doesn't even pass over a river!! American businessman Robert P McCulloch bought the bridge for $2.5 million in 1968 and moved it - stone by stone - across the Atlantic Ocean. He rebuilt it in Lake Havasu City, Arizona - a small town in the middle of the desert, where the temperature is often more than 40 degrees.

Nowadays, thousands of tourists come to see the bridge, and there is an English village with watersports facilities, shops and restaurants.

The Guggenheim Museums

There are not one but five Guggenheim Museums. Solomon R Guggenheim opened the first collection of modern art in New York in 1959. Another museum opened in Italy, and then, in 1997, two more Guggenheims opened: one in Berlin and the other in the Basque city of Bilbao, in the north-west of Spain.

It is now one of Spain's biggest tourist attractions, and every year hundreds of thousands of people come to see the paintings and other works of art. The newest Guggenheim museum is the Virtual Museum - the world's biggest Internet art gallery.
