

Preparation:

Have you heard of U2? What do you know about them? Complete the table with your ideas:

Who?	What?	Where?	When?

What do you know about St Patrick's day?

Who?	What?	Where?	When?

Watch this video : https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WMZSLi_VkDo and then answer the questions:

1. What is the name of the song?
2. Who wrote it?
3. Where did he post it?
4. When did he post it?
5. Why did he write it?
6. What/who was his inspiration for writing it?
7. Who can you see in the video?
8. Where are they?
9. Why?

Now listen again and note down any words you recognise:

What do you think the song is about?

--

Check the meaning of these words:

Marcher =	s'en ficher =	vivre =
atteindre =	appeler =	faire sourire quelqu'un =
supposer =	surmonter la peur =	le dernier kilomètre =
les toits =	de l'autre côté de la place =

Now listen attentively and complete the lyrics with the missing words:

Let your love be known

Bono (U2)

Yes there was
yes there was no people here yes I walk through the streets of
and no one was near

yes I don't know you
no I didn't think I didn't you live so very far away from just across the
and I can't reach
but I can
you can't touch
but you can, you can
Sing
across
Sing
to me down the
Sing
promise me you won't Sing your love be known Oh let your love be known

yes there is
you and me we're still here
yes when we open our we will spin down the

and maybe I said the wrong thing
yes I made you
I guess the longest distance
is always the last mile and I can't
but I can ring
You can't
but you can, you can
Sing
..... rooftops ...
Sing
to me the phone
Sing
and me you won't stop
Sing
and you're never and again
Sing
it's an act of that your heart is overthrown ...
Sing
And you sing there is no
so let your love be known
that your is overthrown
let your love be known ...

Let your love be knownBono (U2)

Yes there was silence
 yes I walk through the streets of Dublin
 and no one was near

yes I don't know you
 no I didn't think I didn't care you live so very far away from just across the square ...

and I can't reach

but you can, you can

across rooftops ...

Sing

to me down the phone

Sing

promise me you won't stop

Sing your love be known

yes there is isolation

you and me we're still here

yes when we open our eyes we will spin down the fear ...

and maybe I said the wrong thing

yes I made you smile ..

I guess the longest distance

and I can't reach

You can't touch

but you can, you can

Sing

Across rooftops ...

Sing

to me down the phone

Sing

and promise me you won't stop

Sing

and you're never alone and again

Sing

it's an act of resistance

that your heart is overthrown ...

Sing

And you sing there is no distance

let your love be known ...
