Conversation

Exploring Leisure Options on a Boring Afternoon

Emily: I'm kind of bored.

Sarah: So am I. What are we going to do this afternoon?
There's nothing good on TV.

Emily: Yeah, there's nothing I want to watch.
Umm, let's go out to the club and play a game of tennis.

Sarah: Oh, it's too hot out today. Why don't we go to the mall and look at the new arrivals?

Emily: That's a good idea.
But I don't have any money to spend today.

Sarah: Neither do I.

Emily: Well, let's just go window shopping, then.

Sarah: Yeah, that always makes me feel good.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Conversation

Exploring Leisure Options on a Boring Afternoon

Answer the 5 multiple-choice questions on the conversation ;

1.. What is Emily's initial feeling at the beginning of the conversation?

A) Excited B) Annoyed

C) Bored D) Confused

2. What suggestion does Emily give for an afternoon activity?

A) Watching a movie B) Playing tennis

C) Going to a museum D) Cooking a meal

3. Why does Sarah reject Emily's suggestion?

A)The weather is too hot B) The club is closed

C) She's afraid of playing tennis D) She doesn't like Emily's idea

4. What alternative activity do Emily and Sarah consider?

A) Going to a theme park B) Watching a new TV show

C) Going to the mall D) Visiting a friend's house

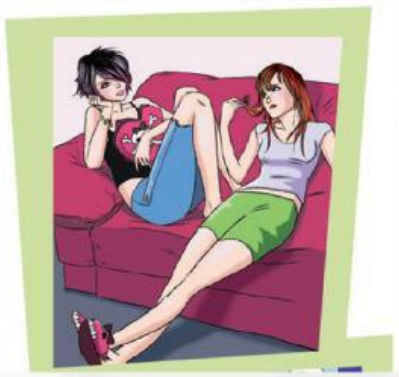

5. How do Emily and Sarah plan to handle their lack of money at the mall?

A) They'll borrow money from a friend

B) They'll go home and get more money

C) They'll still go shopping

D) They'll go window shopping without buying anything

LIVEWORKSHEETS