1. Complete the text with the correct form of the verb (multiple choice)

It was Sunday afternoon. I _____ a cookery program on TV when I _____ how hungry I was. But of course I was hungry; I _____ anything since lunch, and I _____ a race in the morning. “Biscuits!” I _____ . My mother _____ me a jar of delicious home-made biscuits.

I _____ into the kitchen, _____ the fridge and _____ some milk in a big glass. Then I _____ for the kitchen chair but it _____ there: somebody _____ it away. And there were no biscuits in the biscuit jar: somebody _____ them all! I was sure I _____ the jar there the previous day, and I _____ only one cookie. It was very strange.

A few minutes later, I _____ my glass of milk when I _____ a loud noise coming from the dining room. I _____ there quickly and I _____ the door. I couldn’t believe my eyes. An enormous monkey _____ the biscuits excitedly on the kitchen chair.

2. complete the text with the correct form of the verb in brackets. Don’t use contractions (so “did not” in stead of “didn’t”).

We _____ (move) houses a lot while I _____ (grow up).

After Joe _____ (learn) how to drive, he _____ (buy) a car.

George _____ (leave) school, _____ (go) to university and _____ (study) engineering.

Where _____ you _____ (live) when you _____ (get) your first job?

My parents _____ (get) engaged in 1990. They _____ (fall) in love two years before, while they _____ (work) in London.

Kim _____ (want) a change of career so she _____ (move) to Australia.

LIVEWORKSHEETS