

ARTICLES & QUANTIFIERS

1 Underline the correct alternatives to complete the conversations.

A: How's a/the new place, Harry?

B: Not bad, thanks. It's a/the big flat and it's in -/the centre of Leeds. But -/the neighbours are a bit annoying.

A: Why's that?

B: Well, the guy above me is a/the musician, and he plays a/the drums late at night. And below me there's -/a family with young kids.

A: Oh, I know how loud -/the kids can be. I've got a boy and a girl. The/- boy is three and my daughter's five, and they can be really loud, especially at 5a.m.!

A: How do you manage to afford to live in -/the London? It's so expensive!

B: I share a / the flat with -/the other people, -/a man and two women.

A: Oh really? What do they do?

B: Well, a/the man is a researcher, and one of a/the women is -/a teacher. I don't know exactly what an/the other one does.

A: Is that kind of thing common then?

B: Oh yes. -/The flats are really expensive in -/the city but it's a/the great location.

2 Complete the sentences with words in the box.

all	enough	few	little	many	much	no
		none	plenty	some

1. I like _____ English food, but not all of it.
2. I've only got a _____ days of my holiday left.
3. Yuck! There's too _____ ketchup on this burger! It's swimming in sauce!
4. The lesson was so much fun that _____ of the students wanted to leave at the end.

5. Stay for dinner, we've got _____ of food.
6. Has Janet got _____ time to get there?
7. There are too _____ people coming. I don't think we have enough chairs.
8. There are _____ more tickets left. I'm afraid we've sold out.
9. _____ of those colours are horrible – I don't like any of them, sorry.
10. Just add a _____ salt, not too much.