TIPS FOR BEING A GREEN TRAVELER

If you follow this simple travel advice, you could help make a big difference to the 1. _____.

1. Think about where you go

Over 1.4 billion people travel internationally each year. But do you really need to travel abroad to have a great vacation?

There must be lots of amazing places in your own country that you haven't visited. If you travel fewer kilometers, your trip will be greener. You might also be 2. _____ at what you discover.

2. Think about how you travel

If it's possible, of course it's better to use public 3. _____ to get to your vacation destination. When you arrive, try to get around by bike or on foot. You're on vacation, so you can't be in a hurry. Take time to enjoy what's around you!

3. Think about when you travel

Avoid traveling on busy days, such as public 4. _____ or the first day of summer vacation. If you travel by road on these days, your trip will take longer, and your vehicle will use more fuel. You'll save time and money if you leave a few days earlier or later. You might also be less stressed when you arrive.

4. Think about what you take

If you pack less, your luggage will be 5. _____. And if your luggage is lighter, your transportation will be less heavy and more efficient. But don't forget to pack a reusable water bottle and shopping bag. You'll produce much less plastic waste if you don't need to buy bottled water or single-use bags.

5. Think about where you stay

Try to find a hotel that uses 6. _____ energy, recycles, and uses eco-friendly cleaning products. And you could help, too. Your towels and sheets don't need changing every day. If you reuse them, the hotel will be able to save water and energy.

---------	------------	---------	------------	--------

Welcome back to College Radio, where we have all the latest news from campus. This week we're asking you to call in and tell us your plans for the 1. _____ vacation. Next on the line is Jon MacDonald. Hi Jon, how's it going?

Great, thanks.

So, tell us about your plans. You're going all the way to South Africa this summer, is that right?

That's right. I want to travel and meet other young people. I'm 2. _____ in conservation, so I decided to go to South Africa and work as a conservation volunteer.

That's great, you must be very excited. What are you going to do while you're there?

I'm going to volunteer with a 3. _____ called Animal Helpline. They work with sick animals. Some of the animals are very young and we have to feed them during the night.

Are the animals dangerous?

Yes, some of them are dangerous. They're wild animals, so we have to be careful.

What will you take with you?

Not much, just shorts and T-shirts. Oh, and my 4. _____, of course.

How about free time? Will you have some time to relax?

Yes, I think so. Just a few hours a day. There's a swimming pool, so I'm going to swim every day.

How many people are going to work on the project?

I don't know. I think there are 5. _____ 10 and 20 volunteers most of the time.

Will you get a chance to do any traveling after you finish the project?

Yes! After the project, I'm going to go on a two-week tour of the desert with the other volunteers. I'm really looking forward to that!
