

1 Listen and number the correct people.

Listen to the audio and number the correct people.

Open to Learn

I think that humans cause these problems.
I'm sure that the ice is going to melt even more.

Emily

Water Issue

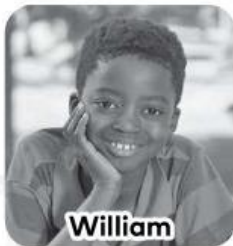

1. access to clean water

Opinion

1. I imagine that...

Statement

1. ... it's really important to save as much water as we can.

William

2. protecting whales

2. I think that...

2. ... if the coral reefs die, many fish and ocean creatures will die, too.

Peilin

3. global warming

3. I'm sure that...

3. ... having clean water changes everything in people's lives.

Santiago

4. saving water

4. I believe that...

4. ... if more people adopt whales, there will be more whales in the future.

Emily: Water Issue _____ Opinion _____ Statement _____

William: Water Issue _____ Opinion _____ Statement _____

Peilin: Water Issue _____ Opinion _____ Statement _____

Santiago: Water Issue _____ Opinion _____ Statement _____

2 Match the causes with the effects.

- | | |
|------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| 1. People drink dirty water. | a. Polar bears suffer. |
| 2. The ocean gets warmer. | b. You get news about it. |
| 3. The ice disappears. | c. Sea animals lose their habitats. |
| 4. People clean up beaches. | d. They get sick. |
| 5. You adopt an orca. | e. There is less trash in the oceans. |

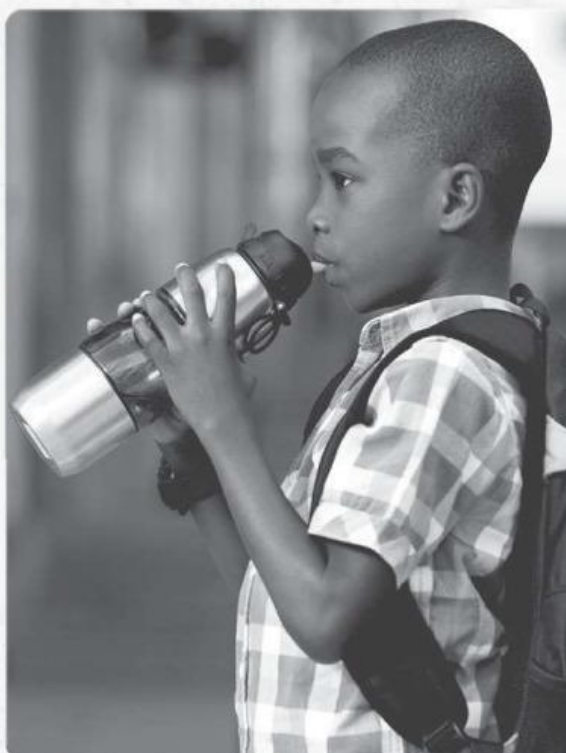

3 Unscramble the sentences.

- If / they won't / children have / get sick. / safe drinking water,

- to school. / get sick, / they will go / If / children don't

- children go / learn about / to school, / the environment. / they will / If

- know how / about the environment, / If / children learn / to protect it. / they will

4 Drag and drop to complete the sentences.

- If people don't save water, _____.
- If the oceans get too warm, _____.
- If it doesn't rain enough, _____.
- If all whales die, _____.

it will make earth less habitable for humans.

the ocean's food distribution will become destabilized.

we will have to suffer from water shortage.

a lot of our crops will be lost.