

PRESENT PERFECT

JUST, ALREADY AND YET

Exercise 1: Read. Choose the correct option.

1. Is Adam at home?

- No, he has yet / just left.

2. Granny, have you finished cooking the dinner already / yet ?

I'm hungry.

3. Don't forget to empty the bin, son.

- Mum, I've already / yet done it.

4. How about a cup of tea?

- Thanks, but I've just / yet had one.

5. We're lucky! The bus hasn't left already / yet .

6. Have you paid the bill yet / just ?

7. The pirate has already / yet found the treasure map, but he hasn't find the treasure just / yet .

Exercise 2: Complete the sentences with the affirmative Present Perfect form of the verbs in brackets.

1. Let's watch Dirty Dancing.

- I have already watched (watch) it twice.

2. My younger sister _____ (do) the washing up.

3. Do you hear the noise? The train _____ just _____ (arrive).

4. Remember to make the bed!

- I _____ already _____ (do) it.

5. My friend _____ already _____ (write) his homework.

6. They _____ (be) to London twice.

Exercise 3: Read. Choose the correct option.

1. Your cousin hasn't come to the party yet.

Your cousin hasn't yet come to the party.

2. The cat has just caught a mouse.

The cat just has caught the mouse.

3. Have you yet finished your food?

Have you finished your food yet?

4. She has sent already all the postcards.

She has already sent all the postcards.

Exercise 4: Complete the sentences with the negative Present Perfect form of the verbs in brackets.

1. My mum hasn't baked (bake) a cake.

2. Our teacher (finish) his work yet.

3. Lisa (go) on holidays.

4. My cousin (tell) me about his wedding.

5. I (finish)

Exercise 5: EVER or NEVER? Write.

1. Have you _____ eaten lobster?
2. I have _____ been to France.
3. I think I have _____ really known you.
4. Have your children _____ had Turkish Delight or chocolate-covered pistachios?