

Read the previous dialogue carefully then answer the questions below:

Sue: Ann! You look awful! Are you alright?
 Ann: No, I'm not. I've had the worst day in my life.
 Sue: Why? What happened?
 Ann: Well, first of all, while I was walking in the park in the morning, I slipped on the grass and fell and hurt my back.
 Sue: Oh no! that must have really hurt!
 Ann: You can say that again! Later, I was trying to fix the broken table in my house when I hit my finaer with a hammer.

Sue: Oh No!
 Ann: Exactly. And as if that wasn't enough, I was making myself a cup of coffee when I touched the pot and spilt the boiling coffee on my hand and scalded myself.
 Sue: Oh, you poor thing. You have been in the wars. Why don't we go out and have dinner. It might make you feel better.
 Ann: That's a great idea. I don't think I should risk cooking again.

1. Why did Ann look miserable?

Because she had a bad day. She has had several accidents.

Because she couldn't meet her friends.

Because she wanted to go out with her friends but her mother refused.

2. Where did Ann fall down?

In the park

At school

In the bathroom

3. How did Ann scald her hand?

Ann scalded her hand by spilling boiling oil on it.

Ann scalded her hand by spilling boiling water on it.

Ann scalded her hand by spilling boiling coffee on it.

4. What did Sue offer Ann?

Sue offered to go to the cinema.

Sue offered to go outside and to have dinner.

Read the dialogue again then mark the following sentences (T) for true or (F) false. Then correct the false statements.

- Ann hit her finger with a hammer.
- Ann spilt boiling water on her hand.
- Ann fell down on the stairs.

T	F
T	F
T	F