

FILE 3B - GRAMMAR: RELATIVE CLAUSES

Listen to some people playing “Guess the word” and complete the sentences

04 Track 2.4.mp3

Host: Martin, Lola. Are you ready?

M&L: Yes!

Host: OK. Martin, you have 2 minutes to describe your 6 words... starting now!

M: OK, word number 1. It's a person. It's somebody _____ works in a hospital.

L: A doctor

M: No, no, no. It's a person _____ helps a doctor and looks after the patients.

L: Oh, a... nurse.

M: That's right! Word number 2. It's a place. It's somewhere _____ people go when they want to buy things.

L: A shop?

M: Not exactly. It's bigger and you can buy all kinds of different things there, especially food.

L: Eh... A supermarket?

M: Yes! Well done! OK. Word number 3. It's a thing... It's something _____ we use for everything nowadays, for the internet, for talking to people, for taking photos... Mmm... it's a kind of gadget. Everyone has one!

L: Eh... mobile?

M: That's it! Word number 4. It's an adjective. It's the opposite of dark.

L: Light!

M: It's like light but you only use it to describe hair.

L: Blonde!

M: Yes! Word number 5. It's an adjective again. You use it to describe a person _____ is quick at learning things.

L: Intelligent?

M: No... but it's similar to intelligent. It's the opposite of stupid.

L: Clever!

M: Yes! Brilliant! And word number 6. It's the last one. OK. It's a verb. For example, you do this to the TV.

L: Watch?

M: No... It's what you do to the TV when you finish watching at night.

L: Go to bed?

M: No, come on! You do it to the TV before you go to bed!

L: Oh! Turn off!

M: Yes!