

TIPS AND EXAMPLES:

Although we don't agree, I believe she's a brilliant speaker.

- = Even though we don't
- = Despite the fact that we don't...
- = Though we don't ...

I enjoyed the course, although I would have liked more practice.
Even though we saw each other every day, we didn't like each other.
She didn't get the job, even though she was well qualified.
I liked the film, though I am not really into romantic films.

THOUGH can also be placed at the end of the sentence.

- I enjoyed the course. I would have liked more practice, though.
- We saw each other every day. We didn't like each other, though.

Rephrasing. Rewrite these sentences using in a way they mean the same. Use the words given.

We decided to buy the house, but we didn't really have enough money. (although)
= We decided to buy the house,

Despite the bad weather, we left (even though)
= We left

He spoke very quietly, but we understood everything (although)
= We understood everything

Rephrasing. Rewrite these sentences using in a way they mean the same, using though at the end of the sentence.

We loved the house, but the garden was too small.
= We loved the house. The

She spoke very clearly, but he didn't get it
= She spoke very clearly.

Despite the fact that they left early, they missed the train.
= They left

Although she did a good job, nobody bought it.
= She did a good job.