

Be Able to

Practice A. Directions: Complete the sentences with the correct form of be able to. Do not use contractions in this practice.

Remember:

- You must use a base verb after able to.
- You can change positive be able to statements by using the negative form of the verb be (e.g. wasn't, weren't, am not, isn't, aren't, and won't be).
- You can also contract the subject and the present tense of the verb be (e.g. I'm able to, she's able to, he's able to, they're able to) as well as its future tense (e.g. I'll, she'll, he'll, they'll, we'll and you'll + be able to)

Past	Present	Future
I was able to get there on time.	I am able to speak two languages.	I will be able to see you tonight.
She was able to get there on time.	She is able to speak two languages.	She will be able to see you tonight.
He was able to get there on time.	He is able to speak two languages.	He will be able to see you tonight.
They were able to get there on time.	They are able to speak two languages.	They will be able to see you tonight.
We were able to get there on time.	We are able to speak two languages.	We will be able to see you tonight.
You were able to get there on time.	You are able to speak two languages.	You will be able to see me tonight.

1. Jenna _____ finish her test on time. She got an A.
2. We're running late. I don't think we _____ catch the next bus.
3. I didn't like working overtime every weekend, but I _____ earn a lot of money.
4. The gym was closed, but he _____ exercise at home.
5. I don't need an accountant. I _____ file my own taxes.
6. If you study every day, you _____ learn English.
7. It was a long and complex process, but we _____ adopt a child.
8. They _____ provide excellent customer service because most of their employees are well trained.
9. Cats _____ see with less light than people.
10. Johnny _____ understand last week's math lesson with the help of a tutor.