

Royal Canadian Mounted Police

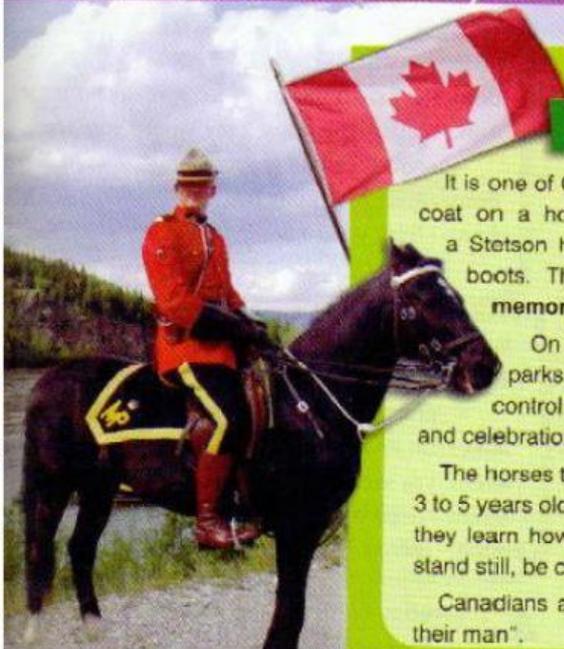

Based on the text in Access 3 Unit 6

Watch the video before doing the following tasks and read the text.

RCMP: Royal Canadian Mounted Police

Safe homes
safe communities

It is one of Canada's best known symbols: a police officer in a scarlet coat on a horse. Their formal uniform, the Red Serge, consists of a Stetson hat, a scarlet coat, black pants and brown leather riding boots. They usually wear it for civil ceremonies, festivals and memorials.

On a typical shift, RCMP officers, in pairs, patrol streets and parks on their horses carrying their portable radios. They also control traffic and crowds, especially at sporting events, festivals and celebrations.

The horses that serve in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police are usually 3 to 5 years old and training usually takes nine months. During this period, they learn how to walk and run correctly and most importantly how to stand still, be calm and move through traffic and crowds.

Canadians are very proud of their mounted police who "always get their man".

Task 1. Match the words with their definitions.

a shift	cars moving on a road or public highway
scarlet	able to be easily carried or moved to patrol	period of time in which different groups of workers do the same work in relay
portable	a bright red color
mounted police	police who patrol on horseback
a traffic	a large number of people gathered together
a crowd	keep watch over by regularly walking or traveling around

Task 2. Fill in the gaps with appropriate words.

1. The _____ of Easter are the Easter bunny, Easter eggs and the chick.
2. The winners were presented with their prizes at a special _____.
3. The exhibition _____ 180 drawings.
4. You have to set yourself apart from the _____.
5. The bus was still waiting there when the day _____ went home.
6. She got nine As and he was so _____ herself.

Task 3. Choose whether the sentences True or False.

- a) RCMP is the most privileged police in the USA. T/F
- b) The symbols of the Canada are a maple leaf, mounted police and beaver. T/F
- c) The main RCMP's task is to control the streets. T/F
- d) For this job horses are also trained as well as the people, during some period of time. T/F
- e) The horses should be of the specific breed. T/F
- f) The policemen always wear a Stetson hat, a scarlet coat, black pants and leather riding boots. T/F

