Are these sentence grammatically correct?

1. Europeans knew very little about Africa, they called it the “dark continent.” Yes No

2. European merchants had traded at ports along the African coast for centuries but few Europeans had ever explored the continent’s interior until the 1800s. Yes No

3. European explorers slowly ventured into the African interior, the Scotsman Mungo Park led the way. Yes No

4. The Frenchman René Caillé crossed the Sahara the German Heinrich Barth explored western Africa. Yes No

5. The most famous adventurer was David Livingstone he was a Scottish missionary who explored central Africa for about thirty years. Yes No

LIVEWORKSHEETS