

FUTURE PLANS WITH "BE GOING TO"

In this writing task, you will practice using the "be going to" structure to talk about your future plans and intentions. Remember that "be going to" is used to express things you have decided to do in the future. Use the prompts provided to create sentences using "be going to."

Instructions:

- Read the prompts below.
- Use "be going to" to write sentences based on each prompt.
- Try to make your sentences clear and accurate.
- Use full sentences with correct grammar and punctuation.
- Write two sentences for each prompt.

Prompts:

- A. What are you going to do after school today?
- B. Where are you going to go on your next vacation?
- C. Who are you going to meet this weekend?
- D. What are you going to eat for dinner tonight?
- E. What subjects are you going to study next year in school?
- F. When is your friend's birthday, and what present are you going to buy for them?
- G. Are you going to participate in any sports or activities this summer?
- H. What job do you want to have in the future?

A.

--

B.

--

C.

--

D.

--

E.

--

F.

--

G.

--

H.

--

EXAMPLES

A.

After school today, I am going to play soccer and then read a book

B.

On my next vacation, I am going to visit a beautiful beach in Florida.

C.

This weekend, I am going to meet my best friend at the park.

D.

For dinner tonight, I am going to have pizza and salad.

E.

Next year in school, I am going to study math.

F.

My friend's birthday is in October, and I am going to buy them a cool book as a present.

G.

This summer, I am going to join a soccer team and take swimming lessons.

H.

In the future, I want to be a doctor, so I am going to study hard and go to medical school.