

Last Sunday was a fun day with my family. We watched a fantastic movie together in our cozy living room. Then, we had a delicious picnic in the park, and I could eat my favorite snacks.

During the picnic, we saw a beautiful rainbow in the sky. It was so colorful and bright!

After our picnic, I wrote a short story about our day in my diary. I told my family about it, and they listened to me.

To end the day, we went to the swimming pool. We swam and had lots of fun. I even won a little race in the pool! It was an amazing Sunday with my family, and I can't wait for the next weekend.
