

Reading Comprehension

Read the story below.

Native Americans of the Plains did not let any part of the buffalo go to waste. They ate as much of the buffalo meat as they could. They dried the rest of the meat to be eaten at a later time. Native Americans of the Plains also used the buffalo skins to make clothing and covers for their teepees. Then they shaped the bones from the buffalo into tools.

Fill in the circle next to the correct answer.

1. What is one way Native Americans of the Plains used buffalo?
☐ Ⓐ for transportation ☐ Ⓒ for work
☐ Ⓑ for food ☐ Ⓓ as pets
2. What did Native Americans of the Plains do with the rest of the buffalo meat?
☐ Ⓐ threw it away ☐ Ⓒ sold it
☐ Ⓑ fed it to horses ☐ Ⓓ dried it

Write your answer on the line.

3. Why were buffalo important to Native Americans of the Plains?

Vocabulary

Fill in the circle next to the correct answer.

1. The poles in a teepee were set up in a _____.

- ☐ (A) square ☐ (C) circle
☐ (B) star ☐ (D) rectangle

2. Most of the Plains region was _____.

- ☐ (A) water ☐ (C) desert
☐ (B) rocky ☐ (D) prairie

3. A _____ was in the middle of the teepee.

- ☐ (A) fire pit ☐ (C) table
☐ (B) stove ☐ (D) bed

4. Women _____ the buffalo meat so it could be eaten months later.

- ☐ (A) pickled ☐ (C) dried
☐ (B) refrigerated ☐ (D) hid