"... I have always wanted to be a teacher since I was a child , so after graduation, I want to continue my study at college and work in the field that I like. It's stressful for me to have to be so confident in my knowledge and in myself in order to become a teacher. I strongly believe that I would gain many benefits and pursue higher education in my future journey"	"... I'm currently unsure of what I want to do after graduation and don't have a clear plan for my future. Maybe taking a gap year is fine for me now. I'm afraid I won't be able to continue in college for long. On the other hand, if I get a job to learn a trade, I can study and earn money at the same time, though this is difficult ..."	"... I decided I would stop going to college when I finished high school. I don't feel particularly interested in studying; instead, I would prefer to gain more experience, such as in business. I intend to start out small and learn how to trade a particular good, and if everything goes according to plan, I'll eventually expand..."
