

QUANTIFIERS

MUCH – MANY – SOME – ANY – A LITTLE – A LOT OF

Name:

Grade:

1. Choose and write the correct quantifier.

There are any / a lot of / much students here today.

Corea has much / many / a lot of beautiful buildings.

She only spent a few / a little / much dollars there.

There is milk a little / a few / many.

Would you like some / any / much biscuit?

I have a few / much / any beautiful dogs.

John has a little/ a few / any money left.

There are some / little expensive new boats next to the river.

We saw a little / some beautiful animals when we went to California.

There aren't many / much cars parks in the mall.

2. Select C (countable) or U (uncountable) next to each of the nouns.

Biscuit ___, Milk ___, spaghetti ___, rice ___, coke ___, tea ___, egg ___, ketchup ___, coin ___, bottle ___, money ___, olive oil ___, rice ___, bread ___, cookies ___, luggage ___, journey ___, beef ___, fork ___, soup ___.

3. Complete using the right option SOME, ANY, A – AN.

We want to eat _____ hamburgers for lunch.

Do they have _____ pencils in the pencil case?

Are there _____ oranges to prepare a juice?

I have _____ new shirts in the closet.

There is _____ bread on the table.

Is there _____ good computer in this shop?

4. Select the correct option MUCH – MANY.

_____ pencils.

_____ wine

_____ dogs.

_____ money.

_____ balls.

_____ animals

_____ grapes.

_____ cars.

_____ cheese.

_____ milk.