Dear Mr. Ayres,
I am contacting you about a problem with this month's figures for vending machine sales. Yet again, there is a considerable (4) between the amount of stock sold and the figures we (5) from the Accounting department. It seems that several thousand dollars worth of stock is unaccounted for. As this happened last month, as well as several months ago, we are very concerned about whether the problem is with the warehouse sales records or with the Accounting department.
As this company sells several million dollars worth (6) our product each year, we are concerned about the cash that is unaccounted for. There will be a meeting in HR on Monday at 6:00 p.m. Hopefully we can solve this problem before it happens again.
