

Unit 5 Practical work

Part One: RE-MIS-OVER-MULTI-EX-POST-DIS. Complete the sentences with the correct prefix for each word

- 1- I _____ spelled my surname at school.
- 2- Mum _____ agree with me with the idea of having a dog.
- 3- London nowadays is a _____ cultural society full of foreigners.
- 4- The match was full of people yesterday, really _____ crowded.
- 5- I don't have more paper. I will have to _____ use some written sheets.
- 6- This year I have classes with Mr Jack. My _____ teacher was a young woman.
- 7- Mark is doing a _____ graduate course in bussiness.

Part Two: Add a prefix (pre-, re-, un-, dis-) to the base word to create a new word.

- | | |
|------------------|------------------|
| 8. play | 15. read |
| 9. honest | 16. true |
| 10. do | 17. use |
| 11. known | 18. obey |
| 12. heat | 19. school |
| 13. pay | 20. charge |
| 14. fund | 21. agree |

Part Three: Complete the sentences with the missing word. You have the first letter of each word to help you.

- 22- His job is really c_____, he puts great effort on it, but it's really r_____ in the end.
- 23- An e_____ sells properties.
- 24- Tom is looking for a job. He wants to a_____ for the post of junior programmer.
- 25- My uncle is a g_____. He works for a football club.
- 26- I don't like working alone. I prefer t_____ work.
- 27- To work with people you need to be really g_____ at communicating.
- 28- Tom arrives late for work and never does what he is asked to do. He is not a r_____ employer.
- 29- Jane is not w_____. He earns very little money.
- 30- I need to ask the l_____ for a new key. The old one doesn't work.

