Read the text. Then answer questions 6 to 8.

Today, many families lead busy lives. Children are busy learning something new every day after school. Not many moms cook at home because they have jobs, just like dads. Our society is changing rapidly, and so are people's lives. Busy families tend to find new ways to make their lives easier and simpler. These new changes can be found in our eating habits, too. Many families get takeout or order out for delivery. This is nice because you can try many different kinds of food, and you save lots of time because you don't need to go shopping for ingredients or prepare the food yourself. However, not all takeout makes you happy. You may never know what you are actually eating. Also, it is too expensive to get takeout or order food every day. Most importantly, nothing can be compared to a home-made meal.
