The English like flowers. It's a useful occupation because it doesn't harm anyone. In winter the most romantic thing some people is to pick up a seed catalogue and look at the brightly pictures of summer flowers. Even people with a tiny patch of ground in towns like growing plants, and people who never seriously tried to speak any foreign language carefully learn the Latin names of the flowers they plant, so that they can tell their friends.

If you to please an English person, be very polite about his garden. He will probably tell you about his garden. So you listen and say, "How ! How clever of you!"

The English gardens are internationally famous. Some of them are very beautiful, especially the big that are open to the public.
