Let's practice a bit more.

If given a statement, turn it into a question, and vice versa.

Example:

Task	Answer
1. I work from home.	Do I work from home?
2. She speaks French.	Does she speak French?
3. Does she live in Bogotá?	She lives in Bogotá.

Now, your turn!

a. The airline attendant at the check-in counter speaks very well Spanish.

a. _____

b. The passport expires in three years.

b. _____

c. I always keep the boarding pass in the travel wallet.

c. _____

d. Do you have oversized luggage that needs to be checked in?

d. _____

e. Do you have oversized luggage?

e. _____

Write some questions or statements as required in the task using the given words; don't forget articles (the, a, an) when required.

Check the following example:

Task: 1. security checkpoint/to open/early morning/to check/luggage? (Make a question)

Answer: 1. Does the security checkpoint open early morning to check my luggage?

Now, it's your turn:

a. airline/to have/any restrictions/on/weight/of/luggage/for this flight? (Make a question)

a. _____

b. your boarding Gate/to change/for connecting flights? (Make a question)

b. _____

c. airport/to offer/any services/for travelers/to find/boarding gates? (Make a question)

c. _____

d. security checkpoint/to be/busy/during/peak travel hours. (Make a statement)

d. _____

e. she/to use/luggage tags/to identify/luggage easily. (Make a statement)

e. _____