

Simple and Compound Sentences

Write "S" for simple sentences and "C" for compound sentences.

1. A young man was jogging along the beach. _____
2. Bisi continued to sink, so her hair grew longer and longer. _____
3. The women went as usual along the forest path. _____
4. No one helped her, nor did they care about her situation. _____
5. The water was freezing, but not to worry. _____
6. She had to take a deep breath. _____
7. Now the trouble was that the lights from the beach were dazzling her eyes. _____
8. A wave would crash over her, but somehow she would appear on the other side. _____
9. We have lost our way of talking to whales. _____
10. Nobody saw her slip away and enter the water. _____
11. Instantly I ran through the waves. _____
12. She had reached the whale and was hanging onto its jaw. _____
13. They don't often wash or change their clothes. _____
14. No one was injured in the explosion. _____
15. He said he was finding politics irritating, so he handed in his notice. _____