Writing and Usage

1. Write a letter to your local council, arguing for the benefits of creating a space in the local area for young people to practise an extreme sport, such as parkour, skateboarding or climbing.

Think about how your content will persuade them.

What are the benefits of your chosen activity/sport? Who would it particularly benefit, and how? How would it benefit the area? Are there any problems you need to acknowledge, such as safety? Do you have any statistics about the benefits?
