UNIT 1 – LANGUAGE & COMMUNICATION

EXERCISE 1 : Complete the sentences with correct word.

envisage	diligent	endeavour	ramifications	unprecedented
contaminate	withstand	novel	unravel	far-fetched

1. I a day when proper health care will be available to everyone.
2. She has suggested a approach to the problem.
3. Technology is the fastest-changing area of human .
4. An number of students are taking the class.
5. Have you considered all the of your suggestion?
6. We have a long way to go before we the secrets of genetics.
7. Be careful not to allow bacteria to the wound.
8. Her story about being chased away from school by wolves seems .
9. Their lawyer was extremely in preparing their case.
10. The building has to be strong enough to severe winds and storms.

EXERCISE 2 : Match the words with their meanings/synonyms.

1. distinct from	take advantage of
2. exploit	curious
3. inquisitive	ability
4. proponent of	lack, not enough
5. extract	different
6. competence	unwilling
7. shortage of	advocate
8. reluctant (to do)	take out, remove
9. emerging	developing, coming out
10. assume	suppose

LIVEWORKSHEETS

EXERCISE 3 : Phrasal verbs and verbs with prepositions.

1. He puts a lot of energy his performances.
2. I've been meaning to call her, but I just haven't gotten round it.
3. What set her from the other candidates for the job was that she had a lot of original ideas.
4. Nobody likes to be rejected, but I got it.
5. She was quick to point that it wasn't her fault.
6. They're hoping to hold surgery until he's stronger.
7. The position calls someone with a master's degree.

LIVEWORKSHEETS