The Fox and the Grapes

The sun ripened grapes hung invitingly over the wall.
It had been a hungry day for the fox.
At last, he gave up and said: "I am sure those grapes are sour."
He was very tired but kept on walking, searching for food.
The fox jumped and jumped to reach the grapes.
He was very hungry and thirsty when he came near a vineyard.
It was all in vain; he could not reach any of the branches.
