

Past and Past continuous

Once upon a time, Sarah _____ (be/walk) through the park, enjoying the beautiful scenery around her. As she _____ (be/stroll), she _____ (notice) a group of children playing soccer nearby. She _____ (stop) to watch them for a while, admiring their energy and enthusiasm.

Suddenly, she _____ (hear) a loud noise coming from the trees behind her. She _____ (turn) around and _____ (see) a group of squirrels playing and chasing each other. They _____ (be/jump) from one branch to another and making funny noises.

While Sarah _____ (be/watch) the squirrels, a dog _____ (appear) out of nowhere and _____ (start) chasing them. The squirrels quickly _____ (scatter) and _____ (run) up the tree trunks. The dog _____ (bark) and _____ (jump), trying to catch them, but he _____ (can/not) reach them.

Sarah _____ (be) amused by the scene and _____ (start) taking pictures with her camera. As she _____ (be/snap) away, she _____ (realize) that it _____ (be/get) late and she _____ (need) to head back home.

As she _____ (be/walk) away, she _____ (glance) back at the park and _____ (smile), feeling grateful for the beautiful day and the fun experiences she _____ (have).