

Using Quantifiers in Adjective Clauses

TASK A. Look at the photo. Complete the sentences with words from the box.

which

which

when

many of whom

that all of whom

1. There's a large crowd of people ____ are sitting close together, so they must be at some sports event.
2. I see dozens of people, ____ are wearing red shirts or hats. That must be a team color.
3. About half the people are wearing sunglasses, ____ must make it easier to watch the game.
4. There are a few small children, ____ are sitting with their parents.
5. Everyone is wearing either a coat or warm sweatshirt, ____ must mean it's a little chilly.
6. This could be halftime. That's the halfway point ____ the game stops so the players can rest and meet with their coaches.

TASK B. Look at the photo. Complete the sentences with words from the box.

which

three of which

one of which

none of which

1. This is a collection of hats, ____ is clearly for a woman. It looks like a sun bonnet.
2. One of the larger hats is bright green, ____ makes it appropriate for St. Patrick's Day.
3. There are a number of festive-looking hats, ____ are sombreros. You can tell by their points and wide brims.
4. I see a total of 18 hats, ____ are my style. I prefer simple hats like a baseball cap.