

C2.1

Complete the following article with ONE word that corresponds:

How technology has changed our daily lives

When it 1) to communication, technology has given us 2) to information, instant communication, entertainment, online banking and more. In addition, devices 3) as smartphones, tablets and laptops 4) enabled to become connected, to work 5) and to learn online. Social 6) apps have transformed the way we share information and 7) with others.

Regarding sport and leisure, new materials and designs are engineered for 8) and safety. At the 9) time, performance can be monitored in 10) to improve techniques and 11) injuries.

Streaming services namely Netflix, Hulu and others have introduced us to a 12) approach to entertainment in which it is possible to enjoy watching movies and series 13) leaving home.

As for work life, flexibility, accessibility and efficiency have become achievable virtually from 14)

Thanks to digital transformation, automation and 15) intelligence, the nature of work has 16) leading to the streamlining of processes as 17) as the maximization of productivity.

In relation to health, minimally invasive 18), reduced recovery times, medical data analysis and early detection of 19) have crystallized. Furthermore, advances in genomics have 20) to personalized treatments and insights into health risks and ancestry.

Last but not 21), in the area of food, it is now feasible to 22) from any restaurant in town, which is convenient, cost-effective and fast.

Technology breakthroughs in the agricultural field, have facilitated the improvement in 23) yields, have helped reduced 24) impact and have aided in the availability of 25) produce.