LIVEWORKSHEETS

X. Read the following passage and answer the questions below.

International Young Pioneer Organisation

We send young people of different nationalities on expeditions around the world. Our volunteers get the chance to work with local people to learn about different cultures, and to live in an exciting environment. This often helps them to become more confident and responsible people.

The expeditions

There are ten expeditions every year. Each expedition lasts for ten weeks and takes 150 volunteers. They go to countries such as Chile, Namibia, Mongolia and Viet Nam.

Some of our volunteers work with local people to provide important facilities, for example, building schools. Others work in national parks or help scientists to do environmental research.

The volunteers

These adventurous, young people come from all over the world. To become a volunteer you have to be between 17 and 25; you have to speak some English and you also have to be enthusiastic, flexible and hard-working members of a team.

1. Who goes on International Young Pioneer Organisation expeditions?

2. How many expeditions are there every year?

3. How long does each expedition last?

   _____.

4. What do the volunteers help the scientists?

5. Which language must we know to become a volunteer?

Helping The Blind

School was over and Viet was on his way to the library to meet Nam. As he came to the traffic lights, he noticed a blind man waiting to cross the busy road. "It must be so difficult and frightening trying to cross a road that one cannot see," Viet thought to himself. He decided to help the man. Viet walked up to him and asked politely, "Sir, may I help you across the road?" Just then, the lights turned green. Viet held the man by his elbow and guided him safely to the other side. The blind man was very grateful.

"Thank you! You are a very kind boy indeed!"
