

Grammar Activity: Future with "To be going to"

Focus hocus: We use "To be going to" to talk about future plans or things we want to make in near future.

- Complete sentences using affirmative, negative, interrogative form "To be Going to", keep on mind the verbs in the brackets.

- We _____ (Play) tennis next Saturday.
- Madison is not going to (Not buy) that car.
- _____ Alice and Ella _____ (Stay) in London for more than a week?
- Noah _____ (Wash) the dishes after the party.
- Wendy _____ (Visit) a friend in the evening.
- The company _____ (Increase) sales this year.
- My parents _____ (Not travel) in the summer.
- It' _____ (Be) a beautiful day today; the sky is so blue!
- _____ you going to (Not publish) your novel this year?
- Look at the sky! It _____ (Rain) soon.

- Organize the sentences according to the grammatical structure of "To be Going to"

- going to / Sandra / her mother/ is / help

- have / What / going to / are / for dinner / you?

c) at the university / I / study / going to / am / next year

d) is not / The dog / its food /eat / going to

e) soccer / Bob / next Sunday / going to / is / play

f) clean / are not / Students / classroom / going to / their

g) going to / after school / They / are / do their homework

h) go / going to / parents / your / Are/ to the supermarket?

i) at the beach / I / going to / my holidays / spend / am

j) English / learn/ I / going to / am / very fast

3. Make a sentence using the informal way of “To be Going to” in a connected speech or fluent conversation.

a) _____