He's the one who goes running

A 1.13 Look at the photos, then listen to the conversation and follow in your book. Who lives at 7 and 8 Mandela Court?

It's Saturday morning and Danny's at work in Karim's shop. His sister Beth has just come into the shop.

Beth: Hi, Karim. Hi, Danny. Do you sell socks?

Danny: Yes, we do. They're next to the pet food.

Beth: Oh, yes. They're for Andy. He wants some white ones. And I need a bottle of mineral water.

Danny: A large one or a small one?

Beth: A small one, please. Thanks, Danny. ... I can't stop. I'm meeting Andy in a minute. See you later. Bye, Karim!

Karim: Bye, Beth.

Danny: Bye.

Karim: Is Andy the one who goes running every morning?

Danny: Yes. He and Beth are engaged. He lives on the second floor, next door to the Pringles.

Karim: Who are the Pringles? Are they the ones with the parrot?

Danny: That's right. They were in the local paper.

Karim: Ah, yes, I remember. They've got a parrot that can sing.

Danny: It's really intelligent. It's called Frank. Anyway, we've got another customer. Morning, Winston. How are you today?

4 Practice

A Write the sentences again, using one or ones.

1 Have you got any black ones?

- 1 I need some socks. Have you got any black socks?
- 2 Which toothbrush is yours? Is it the red toothbrush?
- 3 We haven't got any large bottles. Is a small bottle OK?
- 4 Which watch do you prefer – the silver watch or the gold watch?
- 5 Which shorts do you like – the shorts with pockets or the shorts without pockets?
- 6 Which is your bedroom – the bedroom that overlooks the garden or the bedroom that overlooks the road?

Še enkrat napiši povedi, v katerih so podčrtani samostalniki.

V povedih tokrat uporabi zaimka 'ONE' ali 'ONES'.
