

Complete the sentences using repeated comparatives

The new smartphone is getting _____ (compact), making it incredibly easy to carry around.

Internet connection speeds are becoming _____ (fast), allowing for seamless streaming and downloads.

The camera on the latest model is getting _____ (good), capturing stunning photos even in low light.

With each software update, user interfaces are becoming _____ (user-friendly).

The battery life of laptops is getting longer and longer, ensuring extended usage without the need for frequent charging.

Complete these sentences so that they make sense using the double comparative (in some gaps you'll only have to use the more / the less):

_____ time I spend on social media, _____ time I have for face-to-face interactions.

_____ I use my smartphone before bedtime, _____ sleep I get.

_____ frequently I check my notifications, _____ productive I become.

_____ I compare myself to others on social media, _____ (bad) I feel about myself.

_____ I depend on social media for news, _____ I trust the information I receive.

_____ (long) I spend on social media, _____ time I have for face-to-face interactions.

_____ I use social media, _____ (happy) I feel, but less satisfied I am with real life.

Fill in the Gaps: "Too," "Enough," and "Not Enough" in the Digital World

Complete the following sentences by choosing the appropriate word or phrase: "too," "enough," or "not enough."

1. The battery life on my phone is _____ to last the entire day, so I often have to recharge it.
2. She spends _____ much time on social media, and it's affecting her real-life relationships.
3. My internet connection is _____ slow to stream videos in high quality.
4. I don't get _____ sleep because I use my phone in bed until late at night.

5. There's _____ storage space on my device to download the new app.
6. Using your phone while driving is dangerous; it's _____ risky.
7. He is always on his phone; it's like he can never get _____ of it.
8. We have _____ time to finish the project before the deadline.
9. To maintain good cybersecurity, it's essential to have _____ complex passwords.
10. Social media can be a great way to stay connected, but it's essential to strike a balance and spend _____ time offline.