

Вивчаємо слова 3		LISTENING  37 Listen to a conversation about an explorer called Sarah Marquis. Tick (✓) the things she has done. - She has climbed Mount Everest. ☐ - She has travelled across South America. ☐ - She has run a marathon. ☐ - She has written a book. ☐ 37 Read the sentences and think about the words or types of words that are missing. Then listen to the conversation again. Complete the sentences with one or two words or a number. - Sarah Marquis started travelling at the age of _____. - She rode a horse around _____. - She walked across the US in the year _____. - She walked for _____ months. - In 2006, she walked across _____. - The most difficult trip was from Siberia to _____. - During this trip she walked _____ kilometres. - The worst time was in the Gobi Desert because it was about _____ °C.
-------------------------	--	--

Complete the words.

- Niagara Falls are three w a t e r f a l l s in Canada and the US.
- Greenland is the biggest i _____ in the world.
- The most famous r _____ in the US is the Mississippi.
- Mont Blanc is the highest m _____ in Europe.
- The Sahara is the third largest d _____ in the world.
- The Pacific is the biggest o _____.
- The Ninety Mile B _____ in Australia is 90 miles long (145 km).
- A l _____ in Scotland is called a 'loch'. That's why there is the Loch Ness Monster.
- The Amazon is the largest rainf _____ in the world.
- The most famous s _____ in Europe is the Mediterranean.

LISTENING Listen and complete the sentences with one or two words, or a number.

Sir Ranulph Fiennes climbed Everest when he was _____ years old. The Transglobe Expedition started in the year _____ and finished in _____. The expedition first went from the UK to the _____. Then it went to the _____ and finished back in the UK. Sir Ranulph _____ across Antarctica. In 2003 he ran _____ marathons on _____ different continents in just _____ days. He made £6.5 _____ to help a cancer charity. He's written approximately _____ books. He nearly became the actor in a _____ film!

