TOO / ENOUGH

Too and enough indicate degree. They modify adjectives, adverbs and nouns.

TOO is an intensifier that expresses that something is inadequate

It comes before ADJECTIVES and ADVERBS
It is used with much/many before nouns

ENOUGH expresses that something is adequate.

It comes: - after ADJECTIVES and ADVERBS
- before NOUNS
- after a VERB

Complete the sentences with the correct option.

The washing machine isn't too big / big enough .

They have too / enough money to go travelling.

This homework is too / enough difficult.

There isn't really too / enough wind to fly a kite today.

He is too smart / smart enough to solve the Rubik's cube.

She is too fast / fast enough to win the race.

She hasn't got too / enough money to buy that dress.

That chest of drawers is too heavy / heavy enough for her.

She has too / enough vegetables to make a soup for 8 people.

That experiment was too dangerous / dangerous enough

Jack wasn't too clever clever enough

The book wasn't too interesting / interesting enough

This job is too hard / hard enough for her.

This tea is too hot / hot enough

It's too / enough windy today.

Don't eat too many / enough sweets or you'll get fat.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

TOO / ENOUGH

Complete the sentences with the correct option.

It's too / enough cold outside for me.

His shirt doesn't fit. It is too large / not large enough for him.

It's too / enough dark in this room for him!

These trousers are too / enough short!

He's tired. He didn't sleep too much / enough last night.

Quiet down! You're too / enough loud!

The ice is too thick / thick enough for skating.

He is too rich / not rich enough to buy that car.

He doesn't eat too much / enough

He works too much/ enough. He can't go on like that.

His hat is too big / not big enough. He can't see.

He has too many / not enough bags to carry.

That film is too scary not scary enough for them.

Her hair is too long / long enough

She hasn't got too / enough time.

There are too / enough books in her library.

The lunch was OK and she ate too much / enough.

That place is too dry/ dry enough.

He's too tall / tall enough to play basketball.

She's too strong / strong enough to face the problem.

LIVEWORKSHEETS