

Fill in the gaps with suitable words and phrases.

1. It's not for g..... m..... he does so badly at school. He's just lazy. (intellect)
2. The success of extremist groups in the elections should be a w.....-..... c..... to all decent citizens. (warning, red flag)
3. You know when to s..... your g..... and when to give in. (be determined)
4. He felt the need to m..... y..... s..... against racism in South Africa.
5. This job must be done properly I want no h..... m..... (settlements)
6. Bob, that car nearly hit us! What a c..... c..... (narrow escape)
7. No matter what sort of hairstyle you are going for, remember you are b..... o..... choosing one that will suit the shape of your face.
8. We decided to c..... all the old clothes that we never wear. (empty)
9. She had a most beautiful body which looked opalescent in the (partially dimmed)
10. There remains a big g..... a..... between bribery and political deal - making.
(unclear, noun)
11. The context makes the meaning (understandable)

