

Grammar 1

relative clauses

1 Underline the relative clauses in these sentences. Are they defining (D) or non-defining (N)?

- 1 Jamie, who is a colleague of mine, has invited me to his party. _____
- 2 The new clothes shop, which is just out of town, sells all those expensive brands. _____
- 3 The people who live in that house are very friendly. _____
- 4 We use this software, which you can download for free, to write all our documents. _____
- 5 The restaurants that sell local food are quite popular around here. _____
- 6 Dino's snack bar, where we used to go at lunchtime, has just closed down. _____

2 Choose the correct option to complete the sentences.

- 1 My cousin, who / which lives by the sea, swims every day.
- 2 Do you have a dress which / who I can borrow for the party?
- 3 I think that's the boy who / whose parents we met on holiday.
- 4 Can you remember where / which we saw the black leather jacket?
- 5 Summer is the time which / when I travel most.
- 6 I'm looking for a place where / that sells cheap clothes.

3 Complete the sentences with who, which or whose.

- 1 Do you know _____ trainers these are?
- 2 Sonia, _____ only moved to this area a few years ago, is my best friend at school.
- 3 Have you seen the gloves _____ I was wearing earlier?
- 4 This new scarf, _____ my sister bought for me as a present, looks really smart.
- 5 That's the student _____ mum also works at the school.
- 6 We need a person _____ speaks really good French.
- 7 He bought a silk tie _____ cost $800.
- 8 I met the man _____ designed the watch.