

(24) PRESENT PERFECT

ACTIVITY 1: PAST PARTICIPLES. Find the past participle verb forms of the verbs in the list and complete it.

INFINITIVE	PAST SIMPLE	PAST PERFECT	INFINITIVE	PAST SIMPLE	PAST PERFECT
TELL			READ
FIND			MEET
MAKE			BE
BECOME			KNOW
SHOW

L I S T S N W S A Z
S O O L U E Q I Z E
S L N O K E T O N E
D D O W E B E Y M D
O G N B O D M O Q D
N T L U A N C O R O
W X M M O E K S E W
O C M M B F O A A F
H Y T E T A H T D S
S T A L E A M D V T

ACTIVITY 2: The Present Perfect. Read the examples. Then study the table.

We've realised we are total opposites.

She's told me all about her plans.

Present perfect affirmative
Subject	have	Past participle
I / You / We / You / They	've / have	talked.
He / She / It	's / has	talked.
Present perfect negative
Subject	have	Past participle
I / You / We / You / They	haven't / have not	talked.
He / She / It	hasn't / has not	talked.

ACTIVITY 3: Complete the text below with verbs from ACTIVITY 1. Use the Present Perfect.

Many of us ¹ have read reports of friendships between animals, and we ² _____ cute videos of pets playing together. But one of the cutest stories is that of Bubbles the elephant and Bella the dog, who ³ _____ each other for a long time. Bubbles ⁴ _____ a resident at the Myrtle Beach Safari in South Carolina, US, for many years. When Bella, an abandoned puppy, arrived at the park, Bubbles made friends with her. Over time they ⁵ _____ inseparable and now spend every day together. They ⁶ _____ us that animals can form true friendships, too.

