

JOHN MORGAN'S DAY

Red: Irregular verbs

Green: Regular verbs

Every day, John GETS UP at 6:30 am. He TAKES a shower, SHAVES, and GETS DRESSED, then he HAS breakfast. He DOESN'T EAT much, just toast, juice and coffee. He LEAVES the house about 7:45 and CATCHES the 8 o'clock train. His secretary Janeth COMES early than he DOES; so when he GETS there, she IS already at her desk. She OPENS the mail and BRINGS it to him, and GIVES him his messages. He IS very busy; he MAKES a lot of phone calls and SEES several clients. After lunch, he WRITES a few memos and GIVES them to Janeth to type. He MEETS with his marketing director and then READS The latest sale report. At 5:00 pm, he SAYS good night to Janeth and GOES home. On the way home, he STOPS to buy the evening paper. He and his wife DO NOT HAVE dinner until 7:00pm, so he HAS time to sit down and watch the news. After a long day at the office, he FEELS like relaxing.

JOHN MORGAN'S DAY

Use los verbos que están arriba en presente. Ahora conviértalos al pasado teniendo en cuenta cuales son regulares o irregulares.

Yesterday, John _____ at 6:30 am. He _____ a shower, _____ and _____, then he _____ breakfast. He _____ much, just toast, juice and coffee. He _____ the house about 7:45 and _____ the 8 o'clock train. His secretary Janeth _____ early than he _____; so when he _____ there, she _____ already at her desk. She _____ the mail and _____ it to him, and _____ him his messages. He _____ very busy; he _____ a lot of phone calls and _____ several clients. After lunch, he _____ a few memos and _____ them to Janeth to type. He _____ with his marketing director and then _____ The latest sale report. At 5:00 pm, he _____ good night to Janeth and _____ home. On the way home, he _____ to buy the evening paper. He and his wife _____ dinner until 7:00pm, so he _____ time to sit down and watch the news. After a long day at the office, he _____ like relaxing.