

One of the biggest restaurants in the world

The Royal Dragon is a restaurant in Bangkok, Thailand. It's very big!

How many people work there? Well, there's an enormous kitchen with three hundred and twenty-two chefs. They cook three thousand meals every hour! There are five hundred and forty-one waiters. They take the plates to the tables. They wear roller skates because some of the tables are a long way from the kitchen.

The good seats in the restaurant are in the "Ten thousand Years Tower" It's seven stories high. There are wonderful views of bangkok from the top storey.

Each mealtime at the Royal Dragon, they use about twenty-four thousand plates and seventeen thousand forks and spoons.

Imagine doing all those dishes!
