

ALUMNO/A:	GRUPO: N°.
SDA: 1
FECHA:	NOTA:

1 . Listen and complete the sentences:

_____ provides energy for plants to grow.

Wind carries _____ from plants to other places to grow.

All living things need _____ to survive and grow. Some animals live in _____ Living things need oxygen for _____.

2. Complete :

a. Animals can be vertebrates or _____

b. _____ ecosystems appear where the sea meets the land.

c. Animals are _____ , which means they eat other living things for food.

d. _____ carries seeds from plants to other places to grow.

e. _____ is when humans take too many fish from the sea.

3. Read and match:

Grasslands are areas covered in trees. They provide oxygen that living things need for respiration.

Forests freshwater ecosystems.

Ponds consist of all the living and non-living things in a town or city.

Coastal appear where the sea meets the land.

Urban are areas with long and short grasses.

4. Then ask the questions:

I think the ecosystem is going to...

5. Read and complete :

Non-living and living things interact in an ecosystem. Living things are called biotic factors. Non-living things are called abiotic factors. Abiotic factors are important in an ecosystem because living things (biotic factors) need abiotic factors to grow, eat and reproduce.

- a. Living things interact with _____.
- b. Where do living and non-living things interact? _____.
- c. Non-living things are called _____.
- d. Abiotic factors are important in an ecosystem because _____.