Exam REMINDER

Identifying what type of word is missing

- First, read the whole text.
- Look at each gap. What type of word do you need – a noun, a verb or a preposition?
- For each verb, check the subject. Is it singular or plural?

Exam TASK

Open cloze

For each question, write the correct answer.
Write one word for each gap.

Hi Anthony

How are you? I'm staying with my aunt and uncle in New York City. They've got a great flat with an amazing view. I've (1) _____ seen a view like it before! I've been here (2) _____ the beginning of the month and my aunt and uncle (3) _____ taken me to see a few things. I've (4) _____ visited the Empire State Building and that was brilliant! I haven't seen any Broadway plays (5) _____, but I really want to go to one. I (6) _____ been on the underground yet. I've heard that it's quite busy, but I'm looking forward to it!

Bye for now,
Jacob

Listening

identifying details; matching

1 Read the Exam Reminder. How many answers do you NOT need to use?

Exam REMINDER

Identifying details

- In the matching task, you must listen for details in a conversation.
- The question items are the words on the left. You hear them in the same order as the conversation.
- The answers are on the right. Match each question item with an answer.
- Listen and choose the best answer. Then listen again to check your answer.
- The speaker may talk about one answer option before they say the correct answer.
- The speakers may say all of the seven answer options, but you only need to use five of them.

2 5.1 Listen and complete the Exam Task.
