1 Bicycles used in road races usually have gears, (which /when) are designed to make riding easier

2. Many students choose to continue (their / our / theirs) education and attend a college or university.

3.3many /much / more) students at the college or university level began taking classes online.

4.Some cameras (record /records) single pictures called photographs

5. In the late 1800s the U.S. inventor George Eastman made a camera (that /when / what) brought photography to the general public

6. People simply pushed (a /some / an) button to take pictures and then sent the film to Eastman's factory to be printed

(7.most /more / many) photography is digital, though some photographers still use old film cameras.

8. For a long time and even today, many buildings, mostly houses, have been made (of /from / with) wood

9. Wood is also (used /use / uses) to make fences.

10. There are two kinds of wood, which are (called /call /, calls) "hardwood" and "softwood"

11. Softwood comes from non-flowering plants and are good for big things, (such /so / that) as bridges and houses

12.The buildings form a nearly rectangular wall, except at the center, (where /when / what) the east and west complexes are connected by walls alone

13. Whilst studying at these schools, they learn things that can help them do their job, (such /so / as) as knowing about different laws or how to use weapons

14. The (most /more / better) common colour for police uniforms is dark blue

15. Police officers have to (move /moves / moving) from different places to do their job

16. Some walk the streets, (others /another / other) ride around in police cars

17. Today, police officers use computers to keep records and to search for information while (solving /solves / solve) crimes.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

18. He told my dad that he knew a mechanic (who /what / where) worked just round the corner

19. Most dinosaurs laid eggs and some of them built large nests to keep (their /its / her) babies safe

LIVEWORKSHEETS